

Jeremiah and Ezekiel

November 24, 2013

The Northern Kingdom, Israel, is scattered by _____ after the fall of its capital Samaria in _____ BC.

(1 Kings 14:15–16, 2 Kings 15:29).

Later the Southern Kingdom, Judah, falls to _____. They are deported in stages—first in 605 BC, second in 597, then the temple is razed in _____ BC. (2 Kings 21:10–16, 2 Kings 24–25).

Jeremiah and Ezekiel

Both Jeremiah and Ezekiel were called at a young age (Jer 1:6; Ezek 1:1).

Jeremiah is often called the _____ prophet (Jer. 20:7–18). Jeremiah was called during the years of King Josiah.

Ezekiel received his call after the deportation of 597 BC. He is the only prophet to carry out his entire ministry in a _____.

Promise of Restoration for Israel and a Glimpse at Eternity

Jeremiah foretold the length of the Babylonian captivity—_____ years (Jer 25:8–12; 29:10–11).

Ezekiel's _____ prophecy (Ezek. 37) foretells Israel's return from Babylon and foreshadows the _____.

Sermons available online at www.fumcquanah.org